LAWMAKERS RECOGNIZED FOR VOTING

Rojas, Currey Present and Accounted For, Every Time

State Representatives Jason Rojas (D-East Hartford/Manchester) and Jeff Currey (D-East Hartford/Manchester/South Windsor) have the distinction of achieving a 100% voting record during the 2016 Connecticut General Assembly.

"There are many responsibilities as a state legislator," said Rep. Rojas. "And as Deputy Majority leader it is critical that I am in the House chamber at all times to set and manage the agenda, work with committee chairs, and ensure bills and amendments are in their final form before coming before my fellow lawmakers. I am very proud of my flawless voting accomplishment."

"As elected leaders, we have an obligation to represent the constituents of our districts and this obligation is something I take very seriously," said Rep. Currey. "Being present during every vote gives me the opportunity to make sure our children, our families and those who may not be able to advocate for themselves have their voices heard in the General Assembly."

Rep. Rojas also serves on the following committees; Education; Finance, Revenue and Bonding; Planning and Development.

Rep. Currey serves on Appropriations, Judiciary, Education and Insurance and Real Estate.
